“ There will be a funeral for the late Dennis Winter, on Thursday May 30th, 2013. Dennis will be laid to his final rest at 2 pm.
Any friends or family who would like to attend, are more than welcomed to come and share happy thoughts and memories of Dennis Winter, (March 13/63- December 16/12). Unfortunately there was a problem with the rules of the cemetery, and we were not able to find a solution to the problem, until today. So we finally are able to lay Dennis to rest in peace on Thursday May 30th, 2013 at 2pm.- I hope you are able to attend. Please pass along Ricky's funeral to any family who wanted to attend- @

“ Dennis was my long time companion and partner and best friend for 30 years.

We shared many good times together and I will miss him very much.

I am so sad to know he is no longer with me, and hope he can finally find a pain free and eternal peaceful rest as he always wanted.

Dennis, may God take you into his warm embraces.

I hope you're finally at peace with your Mom, Dad, Sister Nancy, Aunt Lorraine & Grandmother Mildred.

I've done everything you asked me to do to my best ability to make your life & final days more restful..

I wish I could have done so much more than the doctors could, but the rest was up to you..

I'm glad you've chosen to finally be at peace..

Falkor and I will always miss you..

You were my life but I have to now move on.. I know you understand.

The rest of my life is mine... no longer ours

I met Dennis 18 years ago at Camp Wendake. I remember sitting on his cabin porch laughing and joking. Always ready to share the snacks he had in his food locker. Late nights while watching the stars under a summer August night sky. The trip to Bayfield buying up every kind of pink hat he and Steven could find in town. Campfires and shark song. GOD BLESS you Dennis. Save a place for me on GOD's porch and we will joke and laugh again. REST IN PEACE.... O SIEM
