

Derek William Reddy

December 31, 2019

September 12, 1958 to December 31, 2019.

Derek Reddy passed away on Dec. 31st in hospital surrounded by family. A long time resident of Scarborough, Derek was owner and operator of the Tara Inn, an Irish Pub on Eglinton Avenue for many years. Derek was an avid reader, had a passion for sports and spent a lot of time at the rink cheering on his children. Derek is survived by his wife Marian, and his children Caitlind, Liam, Aidan and Siabh. Derek was the son of the late William and Molly Reddy and brother to Wayne.

Family and friends are invited to come together for a celebration of life, at 3:00 pm Saturday January 4th at the Tara Inn at 2365 Kingston Road.

“ Remembering Derek with great fondness .
I will casually celebrate his twice yearly birthdays. And when I hear
American pie
I will have a cry remembering how badly we sang along with Bryan.
