“ Derwyn and I used to be close friends when we were both in our teens. Went to R J Lang together in the mid 60's then he moved out yo the Peanut and we drifted apart. My fondest memory of Derwyn was when we used to buy those pinstripe stovepipe pants with the 6 inch waist band, paisley shirts from London with high collars and big cuffs and those pointy toed shoes by Clarke's. We went to Philly to visit my relatives and were subjected to cat calls and whistles! Great fun. Those yanks were never very stylish. I've often thought about trying to contact you. Should've acted in my impulse ... sorry Derwyn RIP. Pat Tadier
