

Diarmid Aedan Thomas Murphy

October 24, 2025

August 31, 1930 – October 24, 2025

It is with love and sadness that we announce the passing of Diarmid Aedan Thomas Murphy, who died peacefully at home on October 24, 2025, at the age of 95. He was surrounded by four grandchildren – Kevin, Nicole, Yvonne and Andrew – and son, Sean.

A devoted husband to the late Shelagh, Diarmid was a father to three sons, Brendan (Lindsey), Sean (the late Carol) and Phillip (Carolyn). He was a proud Poppa to Kevin (Stephanie), Nicole (Nick), Yvonne, Andrew, Lora (Will), Victoria, Lisa, Greg and Elliot. Super Poppa will be fondly remembered by Shepard, Sheilagh, Sylvie, Liam and Spencer.

He was deeply connected to his siblings – Maureen (deceased), Brian (deceased), Deirdre, Sean and Kevin – and treasured the many wonderful trips and times they spent together, as well as the close relationships he shared with his nieces and nephews.

He will be greatly missed and remembered for his sharp intelligence, abiding curiosity and fondness for a good dram of whisky.

A celebration of life will be held in his memory this spring.
