

Mrs. Donna Jean Frances Stover-Krehm

November 15, 2011

It is with love and sorrow, the family of Donna Jean Frances Stover-Krehm wish to inform you that she passed away peacefully on November 15th, 2011 at Toronto General Hospital at the age of 72 after an 11 month battle with leukemia. Born in Chatham Ontario, Donna Jean was the daughter of the late Robert Cecil Stover and Julia Victoria Stover. Beloved wife of Andy Krehm for 32 years and loving mother of Ron (Judy) Arnold of Toronto and Jocelyn Arnold of Toronto. Proud "Granny" of Nicole, Megan and Brittney. Dear sister of Perry (Janet) Stover and Herb (Margie) Stover and preceded in death by her late sister Margaret Ann Stover. Also survived by several nieces and nephews. Donna Jean or D.J. (as she preferred) will always be remembered for her love of family, her passion for the arts and co-founding Arcadia Housing Cooperative for the Arts. D.J. touched the lives of everyone she encountered, friends, family and strangers. She will be missed. A memorial service will be held in her honour on a date to be announced. Donations may be made to: Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation, 416-946-6560, pmhf.ca , go to donate now and then memorial donations.

Tribute Wall

“ Mom loved life, loved challenges and loved her family. She gave all she could and fought to the end! I love you and miss you! Your son
Ron

Ron Arnold - November 26, 2011 at 11:16 AM