

Mrs. Edna Lucille Rees-McGrath

April 12, 2017

REES-MCGRATH, Edna Passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 12th, 2017 surrounded by family and friends at the Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, Toronto, in her 72nd year, following a valiant battle with ALS. Diagnosed in January 2016, Edna was involved in several research projects at the ALS Research Clinic at Sunnybrook and directed that her body be donated for ALS research. A Celebration of Life will occur in mid-summer at her home in Newmarket.

Edna is survived by her son, Dale Rees-McGrath, her siblings Sharon Rees (Raymond Middleton), Bonnie Rees (Gary Botzang) and Victoria Rees (Eric Selfe) and their families and the McGrath family. She is predeceased by her loving husband Terrance McGrath. As well, her sister Valerie Rees and brother Neil Rees (Elizabeth Rees) also succumbed to ALS.

She retired from Campbell Moving Inc., Brampton as a Corporate Moving Consultant. Born in Brockville, Edna was raised in Windsor, lived in several cities across Canada and enjoyed extensive travelling during her life. She raised her family in Newmarket.

Memorial donations may be directed to: Sunnybrook Foundation, Attn: Elizabeth Petrova, 2075 Bayview Avenue, Toronto, M4N 3M5. Please indicate "ALS research in memory of Edna Rees-McGrath" or online at <https://donate.sunnybrook.ca/> or by calling 416-480-4483.
