

Edward Brzezicki

December 3, 2025

In Loving Memory of
Edward (Eddie) Brzezicki
August 5, 1950 – December 3, 2025

Edward Brzezicki dedicated 48 years of his life working as a porter at Toronto International Airport — a place where millions pass through, but where he quietly stood as one constant presence. Through early mornings, long days, and countless travelers, he showed up with reliability, dignity, and strength.

To those who knew him, Edward was more than his job. To many, he was simply, Eddie.- a familiar face, a steady presence, a man with his own story, humour, and heart. He had his struggles, his kindnesses, and his quiet ways of showing he cared.

Though our relationship had its distance, love does not disappear with time or space. I remember my dad for who he was — not just what he did — and hold onto the moments, the memories, and the parts of myself that came from him.

Edward is predeceased by his son, Christopher. He is survived by his daughter, Barbara, and his siblings, Aniela, Józef, Daniela and Mieczysław. He is also remembered by his grandchildren. He is also deeply missed by his YYZ family, particularly his Air Canada family and his porter family.

Rest peacefully, Dad.

Your journey here mattered, and so does your memory.

We invite you to join us in paying your respects.

“ Dear Eddie,

Every time I set foot in the airport either working or just travelling I always look around for you and was so happy once I would spot you. Your kind demeanour, your sweet smile and our lovely talks I always appreciated. You will be missed and above all you will be remembered. Rest in heavenly peace sweet friend.

“Eddie had always been a source of warmth and smiles. Eddie was a part of my day-to-day work life at the airport. Though we worked for different companies, seeing him at his post became part of my daily routine. After leaving the sales floor, I find myself searching for shadows of Eddie whenever I pass through Toronto Pearson.

Eddie was the kind of person whose presence you felt before you even saw him—steady, kind, and always wearing that familiar smile. He worked hard, cared deeply, and carried himself with a quiet strength that made the airport feel a little more human, a little more comforting. In a place that could often feel rushed or stressful, Eddie was a pillar of happiness, perseverance, and gentle reassurance.

I will always remember him as someone who brightened even the busiest days without ever trying. The warmth he brought into people's lives continues to live on in our memories.

Rest in peace, Eddie. You will be missed, and you will be remembered.

“ Eddie was a kind, warm and very helpful man. He always greeted me with 'Jamaica, man'. Whenever I got a really heavy suitcase or it was close to the cut off time, He always told me, don't worry, I will take care of it. I will miss Eddie but his memory will live on in all the lives he touched. Rest in Peace dear Eddie.

“ I would like to pay tribute to a man I have known for 29 years here at the airport, to me he was always Mr. Eddie (Pan Edziu). He was truly kind soul, always ready to help anyone who needed it, never asking for anything in return. His presence brought warmth he was one of a kind. I will deeply miss him. May his memory live on in all the lives he touched.
