“ Loretta and I were married on May 11, 1991, and of course we had many family members and friends attending. After the ceremony the wedding group were the first to exit the Church followed by the congregation. As we stood receiving congratulations from everyone up comes Helen (my sister) and brother-in-law Ed... So of course Helen gives Loretta and me a hug and kiss then Ed shook my hand and turned towards Loretta.... He gave her a hug and kiss and congratulated her, and she in turn gave him a squeeze on his cheek....Unbeknownst to Loretta, Ed just had his teeth removed and dentures installed a few days before...Ed's response was a big OUCH. Then he said " he never wanted to hit a Bride before" until that moment....That must of hurt as Loretta has strong hands...Ha Ha...Rest in Peace Ed....
