

Eleanor Jane Lackey

March 17, 2022

Eleanor Jane Lackey (nee Smith) of Haliburton, Ontario passed peacefully into the arms of her strong saviour Jesus Christ at St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto on Thursday March 17th, 2022, in her 71st year, surrounded by loving family members. Eleanor is survived by her beloved husband of 47 years, Paul Lackey, her son Ryan (Amanda), and daughter Shannon Brooks (Clayton), as well as her 4 cherished grandchildren: Grace, Everett, Benjamin, and Rebekah.

A family-only private life celebration event will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ Paul I am sorry for your loss. You were both so kind to Mark and regardless of the circumstances. I enjoyed the times we visited and the kids used your pool in Sterling. Eleanore exuded love and empathy for the people around her. I am saddened by her departure, knowing she is no longer out there making the world a kinder place is indeed a sad thing.
You were both so kind kind to Mark and myself.

---

Judy Ann Pitt - March 24, 2022 at 09:46 PM

CG

“ I enjoyed getting to know Eleanor when was down visiting Shannon and her boys. We talked about teaching, knitting and everything under the sun. I know she truly loved her family. Eleanor now walks with our Lord but will always be with you in your heart. Hugs.
Catherine and Phillip Glencross

---

Catherine Glencross - March 22, 2022 at 09:02 AM

JG

“ Dear Paul, Ryan, Shannon and family,

May I extend my sincere condolences. Eleanor was my lifelong friend and we were bound by our ties to Warkworth and our chosen profession. I know you will all feel some, perhaps great, relief knowing she will no longer struggle with her many health issues.

I know she loved you and I wish you peace as you carry on . Rest In Peace, Eleanor

Janice and Lyle Gallagher

---

Janice Gallagher - March 21, 2022 at 09:33 PM