Liz was the mother of two children, Jeff and Cindy, the grandmother of Sean, Michael, Robert and Craig and the great grandmother of five great grandchildren. Liz worked as a secretary until retirement in 1994. Liz was a deeply religious person who participated in all aspects of church life, both spiritual and social. “ The Christ Church family was saddened to learn of Elizabeth's death recently. Our sincere condolences to Jeff, who contacted the Church, and to the whole family. As pastor for just the last three years, I did not get to know Elizabeth as many others did, but I am hearing, as the news spreads, that Elizabeth was well loved and respected member of Christ Church. I spoke with Elizabeth last year on the phone and enjoyed my talk with her. As a former treasurer and worker with our Craft Group, her contribution was more than keeping track of fundraising efforts; it was the joy of fellowship with the other crafters, building up the body of Christ and, through the group's efforts, effectively reaching many through the agencies we support in Oshawa, Ontario and internationally.

Jesus said, "Love one another as I have loved. All will know you are my disciples if love one another" (John 13: 34)

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercies of God, rest in peace.

May all who loved Elizabeth, her family and friends, draw comfort from the memory of her personality, her faith in the risen Christ and her good deeds.

“ *Sad news. I now help head the church craft group that Liz was treasurer for, for many, many years.
The contributions by her& her husband to the faith life of Christ Memorial Anglican Church in Oshawa, were many and generous.
Rest in peace Liz and condolences to the family.*

“ I was saddened to read of Liz's recent passing and wanted to pass on my deepest sympathies. Liz and I met and became friends while working at Vollrath. We kept in touch for many years when we were both still living in Etobicoke and my husband, and I visited she and Gord when they moved to Orillia. While we have not seen each other for a long time we have been in touch since Liz moved to Oshawa. I have fond memories of our friendship and the time we spent together.

I send my condolences to the family at this sad time.

Sincerely, Chris Craig.
