

Ms. Elizabeth "Liz" Brady

July 26, 2017

June 3, 1945-July 26, 2017

Passed away unexpectedly. She will be lovingly remembered by her daughters Rachel and Lisa Brandeis, grandson Patrick, and by her extended family and friends. Born in Toronto to James Anderson Brady, and Dorothy Patricia Brady (nee O'Connell) and sister of Stephen.

Liz was educated at Western University (BA Honours, MA) and PhD at University College London (UK), Liz was an accomplished author (Jane Yeats mystery series), editor, and avid gardener with a wonderful sense of humour that we all enjoyed. Thank you for instilling in us your values, and teachings of generosity.

We would like to thank the care providers and friends for their support, particularly Dr. Lea Rossiter and staff at the Spadina Health Centre.

In keeping with her wishes, no service will be held. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her honour to Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation or to a children's literacy program.

“ I ended up here after my last email came back undeliverable. Oh my friend, you shall indeed be missed. Your humour, your wit and your love will ever be a part of my most precious memories. She spoke so often of her girls and her Patrick. How she loved you all. With all of her being, in her feisty, scrappy Irish way. I trust that her beloved Nagg and Nell have been placed with someone who will love them as she did. Your mom/grandma brought joy, light and love into this world for many people. Cherish her memory as she cherished you. Peace my friend, you are loved.
