“ Ethan, I'll never forget all the journeys we had pulling together from causing trouble under bridges to fishing and cooking meals creek side with brews... I'll especially never forget my last 3 days there in ontario. Cams at his pool with drinks and ring toss till sun down and we had to split. Day 2 hot tubbing me you and cam and my Lil bro with drinks food and games like when your mom would have us over to hang out! Day 3 we partied up with a few more friends for one last bang before I woke up and ubered home to get ready to take off. I thought we would cross paths again but it will take a while brother. I love you and hope you are in peace in your next life and are looking down at all of us carrying your name and soul knowing we carry it with pride.

“ This is a photo Michelle sent to me a couple years ago. Thought it was such a great picture of Ethan. She joked about how he's still a big kid at heart. My condolences go out to all his family and friends. It is absolutely heartbreaking. Rest in peace Ethan ❤️

“ I was one of Ethans good childhood and highschool friends. We went to the same school for 4 years, and hung out for years at the skatepark, or local ski hills. Ethan was always outside either skateboarding, bmxing, or fishing or doing other outdoor activities with friends. Ethan was a very high energy, positive person with the most contagious laugh. He loved to joke and make everyone in his friend group laugh. He had so much Love to give and deserved all of the Love back that he got from his family and close friends . He really had a heart of gold, and was raised to be such a loving person. He would never let any of his friends go hungry-the type of friend that would give you the shirt off his back, and was the most loyal friend anyone could ask for. My sincere condolences to Michelle, Ethan jr, Emma and the rest of his family and friends. Ethan is at peace now, at home with God. We will all keep you in our hearts forever Ethan. Rest in paradise friend ❤️ B.C
