“ Auntie Ev, I miss you very much, you were a great aunt and will always be in my heart. Your son and angel Jim, was absolutely wonderful to you. You were a blessed lady to have him as a son and a guardian angel right to the end. Miss you, love Cindy.

“When I was young, I admired clever people. Now that I am old, I admire kind people.” -Abraham Joshua Heschel, theology professor (1907-1972).

Evelyn has left many legacies but for Donna & myself one of her greatest legacies is her son Jim.

Jim has such a generosity of spirit and a tremendously kind heart that he raises you to new heights. His humour is infectious and spontaneous. We would like to convey our condolences to Jim & Madge, Jessie & Joey and the whole family.

A last and fitting thought for Evelyn, may it be so,

"An individual human existence should be like a river: small at first, narrowly contained within its banks, and rushing passionately past rocks and over waterfalls. Gradually the river grows wider, the banks recede, the waters flow more quietly, and in the end, without any visible break, they become merged in the sea, and painlessly lose their individual being." -Bertrand Russell, philosopher, mathematician, author, Nobel laureate (1872-1970)

With much love, Donna and David

Dear Evie

A Bear Hug and Heart are sending Hugs and Love to you In Heaven.

While we lived in London and worked together at Bell we not only became close friends, but became a family looking out for each other. I could always count on you.

There is a brighter star in the universe today.

God Speed Evie and thank you for being my Friend

“ Marilyn and the Gover Family

Evelyn was a sister to me; we worked together, moved to London together and retired together. She was a loving and generous person, who was always a constant light in all our lives. I will never forget our trip to England and how many fond memories we shared. Evelyn was so very supportive and kind to my son Don Gover and to my grandchildren Dillon and James Gover. I would like to convey to her two son's how very proud she told me she was of you and of her grandchildren. In this time of mourning we can take solace in knowing that she is now free to roam the Highlands of Scotland, enriching them with her beauty and grace.
