“ Francis, like everyone said. You were indeed a good person. It was our privilege to have met you in Kuwait, we had a few laughs here and there.

It is sad your life's journey ended abruptly in Canada , but you are one of the lucky guy , God calls the good people, and that's you Francis. May your soul rest in peace. Amen.

“ How I wish you knew what a positive impact you were to everybody around you. You are truly loved and missed. You may be gone from our sight, but you are never gone from our heart. Although, you already signed off, I still want to say thank you for being a philosopher of everyday moments. Thank you for being a mentor and a father to us. Your great advice, words of encouragement, funny jokes, wherever we were, (either in office or in your car) will never be forgotten. Thanks for always having patience to wait. We will miss your voice, your smile and your laughter. We will miss hearing you say "Ok, Team Salmiya, get ready! Wait for me on main road." 😔

Thanks for the ride in your car! There are so many good memories left there and I'm really glad I was a part of it. You were one of the humblest and nicest persons I've ever known in my entire life. Thank you so much for your kindness and for treating me like your own child even in just a short period of time. I will be forever grateful and thankful for meeting a great person like you. I salute you! May God hold you in the palm of His hands. We miss you so much. You will always be a part of us. Farewell. You may rest in peace. 'Till we meet again, Sir Francis... 😔

“ Dear Francis,
Your sudden death came as a hard blow. Till today I find it difficult to accept the fact that you are no more...
Will miss sharing food with you whenever I cooked veggies and fish...
After my dearest sister left, a part of her was still around through you.
I will always cherish the memory of you being the gentle and soft-spoken Brother-in-Law. I am sure you are in a better place resting in eternal peace.
May God give Tony, Stephanie and the rest of the family strenght and courage to bear your sudden loss

I have very fond memories of Francis who used to be my neighbour in Sherly Bandra. He was a very quiet person. We used to play seven hands on his opposite neighbours balcony (Claude D'mello). Its sad to hear of his passing away. Our condolences to his family and siblings. May his soul Rest In Peace.Love Savit Mascarenhas

“ Since Bonny was a good friend of mine we worked together in Kuwait. When she met Francis she was so happy, he was really a jewel as I have known him. Very simple understanding and down to earth. Their happy moments were when Tony and Stefnie came in their lives
