“ Dearest Mother.....As always , have to be the first one in for this monumental birthday of yours, tomorrow ,to wish you all the love on your special day.

Your are missed beyond words and never a moment goes by where you are not in my thoughts and in my heart. You wanted so badly to reach the 100 mark but unfortunately that didn't happen and for that I am truly sorry. You most likely would of reached your goal had your situation been handled differently. Some of the promises that we discussed over the years about keeping the family together unfortunately has not happened. Not sure it ever will. One day, sooner than later, I will find you and we will travel eternity as we spoke about many times over the years. Sending hugs and love your way and always remember you will never be forgotten and soon enough never alone.....HAPPY BELOVED BIRTHDAY, MOTHER..... Your daughter, Denise.....

“ Mom

This is the first Christmas we will be spending without you. It will be very difficult not to see your smiling face. You never wanted anything for yourself. You always found more pleasure in giving than taking. I know your looking down upon us and still trying to protect us.

Merry CHRISTMAS

*Always in our thoughts

“ Mom,
Everywhere I go I see your face.
On our boat I see you in the water, and above in the blue sky.
You are free like the birds I see flying above.
Every meal I prepare I can see you and remember how much you enjoyed mealtime.
I cycle to work and see you riding beside me on your bike.
I drive my car and think of all the times you drove me to school.
When I'm sad I think of all the things you could have been sad about and yet you always had a smile on your face.
I see you in my beautiful granddaughter.
After all, no one really dies. Part of you will always be with me.

I know the heavens made a special place for you. You truly were an angel on earth.

Thank you for being my mother.

*I love you always,
Louise.*

“ I wrote this for my Granny. Although she may be gone she is truly alive in our hearts. I hope this poem reflects that. Truly a lovely lady from the inside out. She will live inside me now. I will carry her with me always.

July 19th 2015

*I talked to you today
With blue skies overhead
Wondering if you could hear me
Where ever you may be
I looked all around and I knew
That somehow you could hear me
Because I could feel you.*

*I'm taking you with me wherever I go.
When I need you,
I'll be speaking soul to soul.*

*I remember the times we talked
And laughed about life
What it was to be happy
What it was to be alive
I remember the words
That stick out in my mind
You said,
"this moment is all you have
So learn to move on and
And learn how to laugh"*

*I'm taking you wherever I go
When I need you,
I'll be speaking soul to soul.*

*I talked to you today
With sunshine overhead*

*Wondering if you could hear me
Wherever you may be
I looked around and I knew...
That every time my heart beats
Every time I take a deep breath
You are alive in me
Because somehow I can feel you.*

“ Francis was a beautiful lady inside and out. She was always so grateful for anything you did for her, whether it be getting her a sweater, a glass of water or a little dab-a-dooya (as she would say) she always had a big smile with a thank you to follow. I think I can speak for all the staff on sanders when I say we always enjoyed joking with Francis, as she had a great sense of humour. Her come backs were quicker and wittier than ours half the time. She was also amazing at playing the piano & the dementia did not stop that! We miss her & think of her every day. My deepest to condolences to the family. Xoxo

“ My deepest condolences to Terri and her family for the loss of Ms. Francis. I had the pleasure of spending time with Ms. Francis while I worked at the nursing home. We shared a lot of memories that I would cherish forever for instance, her love for music and trying to teach me to play the piano. We spent a lot of time sitting and talking about matters and she gave me some great advice that I would never forget; she would always say ‘life is a bowl of cherries and you never know what you will get.’ She was a kind hearted person and had a positive aura about her and that beautiful smile. I would always value the moments that I spent with Ms. Francis and Terri. Rest in Peace.

“ Even when I would walk into Sanders not in a great mood, Ms. Francis would always brighten my day, but the smile on her face, or some story to tell about how she wanted something.... a drink, to get out of there something....I did not know her long, but we enjoyed many times sitting and talking together and the one consistent theme was her children. She was blessed with family and that is the biggest gift anyone could have in their life. It was my privilege to have known her. Carry her spirit in your heart everyday. I know that you will never forget. My deepest sympathies.

“ Frances, as we call her in the nursing home, was not just a resident to me but a mother and a friend. A woman who always kept a smile on, a woman who loved my singing, who never complain and in every word she said you will always hear the word " thank you". A very beautiful person inside and out. She will always be in my prayer. Rest in Peace

“ There are tons of things I could literally say about Ms. St. Germain. But the one thing that I loved about her is no matter what she always kept a smile on. I wanna thank her for all her kind words and her friendship. She was truly a beautiful person inside and out. I'm glad she is in a better place now. I did have the pleasure of meeting one of her daughters Terri who was truly a spitting image of who her mother was. My condolences to you and your whole family. Your mother will always be watching over you all. Rest in Peace.
