

Frederic Ma

February 1, 2024

A restless soul who couldn't quite find his way. He loved his two girls dearly. He took pride in his work and always tried to put his best foot forward. He was loyal, almost to a fault. Though he never laughed or smiled easily - when he did, it lit up his face. He will be missed tremendously, and he will be in our hearts forever. A father, Common-law Husband, Son, Brother, and friend. Rest and set your mind free Fred.

“Freddy was the strongest, sweetest most thoughtful man I have ever met in my life. I had the honor of having him as my best friend for most of my adult life. I can not imagine how difficult it must have been for him having problems sleeping his whole life.

I don't know about you, but if i get 5 hours of sleep I am a cranky, moody little baby all day like I'm a toddler who dropped their ice cream. Fred was lucky if he got 4 hours a night..... EVERY night. I can not begin to imagine what that must have been like. Personally, I would loudly swear at everyone and go home to bed if i had one night like that, let alone all of them. But, despite that he would always make time for you. He was literally Superman in my eyes. How that man would not only work a double shift, go to the gym AND still manage to make time for people melts my brain. all of this on 4 hours of sleep, I might add.

The patience and resolve Fred had was remarkable. He was always an ear to listen or if needed a shoulder to cry on. He always stood up for what was right and always helped the little guy.... even if the little guy was twice his size. To his very core he was a good man. He literally gave the shirt off his back once for someone.... Though I suspect it might have been an excuse to show off his abbs, that lets be real, we wish we could have, because it July and no one was cold.

Fred was very special to me and even after 2 weeks of trying to make this make sense I still struggle. No matter what was going on, in whatever situation, when Freddy showed up to a place he brought this calmness with him that could disarm any situation. His loyalty and honor was his armor in life and he would be the fist person in the room to jump on a grenade.

The world has gotten a little colder and the sun is going to shine a little dimmer now, but we just have to cherish the memories of the sunny days that much more. It doesn't make saying goodbye any easy but at least Freezer Fred is finally getting some long overdue sleep.

I love you with all my heart bro and i will thank god for ever day we got to spend together.
