Geoffrey Roy Parr Owen

March 21, 1931 – May 23, 2025

A gentle man, a listener – a life well lived

Enjoyed early life in England, later in Toronto, Canada and Kirkbymoorside, Yorkshire.

A devoted husband and loving father, granddad and uncle – kind, charming, caring, and generous. Geoff's curiosity about world events, advances in science and the arts was contagious and lifelong.

Predeceased by his dear daughter Kate. Survived by his beloved Jeanne (Belbin), their children Rosamund (Jim Miller) and grandson Lucas; Louise (Guuduniia La Boucan) and granddaughter Fynn; and Tim (Claire Ironside) and son Jack; and his grandson Sam and son in law Malcolm White. Also survived by Belbin nieces, nephews and half-siblings John (Sheridan) and Anne in the UK. Predeceased by sister Doreen, mother Winnifred Parr and father Harold Owen.

“ I worked with Geoff as his secretary in the early 1980's when he was a part owner at Smith and Stone in Georgetown Ontario. He was a delight to work for. A great teacher who shared his enthusiasm for learning, a quick smile and a laugh. Today was making soup (Carrot and Orange) that his wife Jeanne had given to me more than 30 years ago.

I wish his family condolences
