“ Dear George.....

*No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God can tell me why.*

*Loving you is easy,
I do it every day,
Missing you is a heartache,
That will never go away.*

*Although you can't be here with me,
We're truly not apart,
Until the final breath I take,
You'll be living in my heart.*

*My heart aches in sadness,
My silent tears still flow,
For what it meant to lose you ..George.
No one will ever know.*

*They say memories are golden,
Well, maybe that is true,
But I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.*

Love Debbie

Dear Debbie:

*Although we have never met face to face, I feel that I know you just from knowing George. My name is Tracey Gruetzman and I have been employed with Shoppers Drug Mart for 22 years, currently working as the receiver at store 615. George talked very highly of you and from what I hear, you and George were like "Two Peas in a Pod", that to me is very special. George was definitely "One of a kind" in my books, a very special individual. George was like clockwork when he was delivering, and as soon as I would open my receiving door he would say "morning Tracey, how are you" and I would respond with the same question, he would always say it with a smile and even a joke to tell me, he always made my day, I enjoyed seeing him everyday. On Monday when I never saw George it didn't really dawn on me because a lot of times my order would be on the Canada Cartiage truck, but on Tuesday when he wasn't there again I knew something was wrong. I send you my deepest sympathy on your loss, he's a great man. Once I got the news I started calling around to my local stores and they all send their deepest sympathy as well. We all talked about our great memories with George, and how well he treated all of us, his jokes and his beautiful smile. We will all celebrate his life in our own ways and remember him in our own ways. I know that everyday this week that I have talked to co-workers or drivers that have crossed Goerge's path have all been so sad but came back with a story about George that would turn their frown into a smile, and I believe that would make George happy, knowing that we all liked and respected him so much. Take care of yourself and your family and always keep your happy memories close to your heart, that will help you through your heartache. Sincerely;
Tracey SDM 615*
