“ Gil McEwan was a brilliant and unique man with strong beliefs. You knew where you stood with Gil. I liked that a lot. He also had a kind and caring side and even when it was especially difficult during these last few months, he always found a moment to ask how my family was and to thank me for my company. His sense of humour was dry and subtle and funny. I'm glad to have gotten the opportunity to know him a bit better lately, not only because of who he was but also, through our many recent conversations, I now know a lot more about many things. I might even attempt to install a heating system!!

"For never again, in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time) has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, not ever again...."
