

Mr. Glen Paul Balson

January 17, 2015

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Glen Paul Balson on Saturday January 17th, 2015 in his 64th year. Beloved husband of 46 years and soul mate to Gail Balson (Gibbons). Deeply loved father of Skye (Joselito) Arroyo and Daryl (Sue) Warner. Dear grandfather to Brooklyn, Eric and Avery Arroyo, Billy and Melissa Warner. Glen is survived by his brother Philip Rodgers. Reunited with his parents, the late Charles and Theda Balson, his dear brother and best friend Daryll Balson, and brother Roy Rodgers. Glen's love for life and happy disposition will be truly missed by his family and friends. Glen is fondly remembered by many as 'Bugs'. A special thank you to the nurses at Community Care Access Centre (CCAC) for their support and guidance, and our family for their support and love, we could not have managed without you. Cremation has taken place, with no public memorial service – a private family celebration of Glen's life will be held.

"When you die, it does not mean that you lose to cancer. You beat cancer by how you live, why you live, and in the manner in which you live."

“ Dear Skye

I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Your dad was an awesome man. Although I didn't see him often, he always made me laugh. One thought came to mind when I heard of his passing. God wants his angels close to him. I hope you can find some comfort in that. Give your mother big hugs and kisses for me. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in these sad times.

Deepest condolences

“ My deepest sympathy to my "sister' (Skye) and her family during this sad time. I will always remember Glen as a fun, outgoing happy man who was never in a bad mood. When he would show up anywhere he would light up a room. A great conversationalist who never forgot names (even in our family of 30 plus)! The song by Creed 'Arms Wide Open', will forever be my memory of Glen. At a function at Skye's house the song came on and he got so excited and started belting it out!

Gail you did an amazing job of taking care of him in his final months. Be proud! You should feel great comfort in knowing that he passed knowing that he was loved beyond belief by everyone who had ever had the privilege of meeting this wonderful man ; but most importantly by his soul mate!

Rest in Peace Dear Glen, until we meet again

Regards,

Norma-Jean Arroyo

“ Sending my condolences to the Balson/Arroyo family at this most sad time - though I didn't know Glen personally I know Skye very well so, in a way, I know the kind of person he was and I know he will be deeply missed by all who knew him. I know he was loved deeply by his family and will be forever in their hearts.

“ Dear Skye, Joey & Family

My heartfelt sympathy and condolences my friend for the untimely loss of your Dad

I know what you're going through and how difficult all this must be for you. Please know that I am always there for you, whether you need to talk or cry or even just sit in silence with someone.”

“I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.” – Leo Buscaglia

“ Dearest Skye and family,

Words cannot express the sadness I feel in my heart for your loss. At times like these, there really aren't any words but rather just knowing that you have support is what helps the most. Please know that I am here if you need anything. And may God bless you and your family during this terrible time. May Glen rest in peace and may he no longer be suffering. Skye, I love you and I'm here no matter what.
