

Mrs. Glenda Colbourne-Merdjanian

November 26, 2013

To all of Glenda's and Avedis' friends;

There will be a Memorial Service for Glenda at Global Kingdom Ministries, 1250 Markham Road, Toronto (Second light South of HWY 401 - West side) on Monday, December 2nd, 2013 at 11:00 AM (Eastern Time). All are invited.

No gifts, cards, flowers, etc. please. If Glenda has touched your heart by her words of encouragement, hugs, friendship, or her super smile, and you wish to honour her, A contribution to GKM in her name would be welcomed.

A donation to the church, either on-line (www.globalkingdom.ca) or at the service, would be greatly appreciated as the needs are many.

Since many of Glenda's friends are located in remote parts of the world, the church has agreed to stream the service through their website (www.globalkingdom.ca). Those who cannot attend physically can join the service through the Internet.

Many thanks for your support during our difficult time.

Please pass on this message to others who knew Glenda but do not have access to the Internet.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the sad news of Glenda's passing. Praise the Lord she's not having any more pain. Now she is in the presence of Jesus. Waiting now for her loved ones to join her one day. Where there will be rejoicing with each other forever. I have great memories of when she lived in Springdale and how she was such a blessing to me. My thoughts and prayers are with you Avedis, and the family. May God Bless you and comfort you in your sorrows today and days to come. Elsie Pinsent

“ Glenda and I met online, as we both had sons in prison. She was such a huge support for me. It was so lovely to be able to share the heartache of being a mom of a grown son in prison. I really wish I could have been her friend in person, she seemed to upbeat and happy and joyful and friendly. I am so happy she is now with Jesus, as I didn't like to see her suffer ;( I will be praying for Avedis and her family, WEndy Benedetti in Oregon, USA

“ To Avedis & Glenda's Family
So sorry to hear off Glenda's passing. We were friends for many, many years. I will sure miss her, but, she's in a better place now where there is know more sickness or pain. We used to have lots of talks and laughs through the years. Hold unto all the Precious Memories ye have of her, it will help ye through this difficult time in your lives. Ye will all be in my Thoughts and Prayers. God Bless each one of ye.

“ To Avedis & Glenda's family: I have been so honored to be a friend to Glenda while she lived in Nova Scotia. We had many a visit or phone conversation & I really missed her when she moved to Ontario. It gives me a peace to know that she was really happy in the last years of her life. Now she has gone home to be with Jesus...no more suffering. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you Avedis & her family & even though I can't be at the service on Monday I will be thinking about you & praying for you.

“ To Avedis, and all of Glenda's family and extended family:

I am joining with so many others who have been blessed to have enjoyed good friendship with Glenda over a number of years. There are many memories I could share, but the ones I will cherish the most are the many times we shared meals together during the time when our apartments were next door to one another in Springdale. We always had such great times of laughter, sharing, and good fellowship together talking about our love for God, our families, and our love of life. Glenda was such an upbeat person who really radiated the true love of God in all that she did. I will certainly look forward to our reunion in heaven. Thank you Avedis for your special love and care for her during her final days. She really found the love that she deserved in you and even though it was far too short a time, I'm sure you will always feel blessed that she was in your life.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time and in the days to come. I'll be watching the live streaming and really appreciate your church for hosting that for those who can't be there. May the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit surround you all as you say your final earthly goodbyes.

*In sympathy and love,
