

Mr. Gordon Edward Sneddon

January 17, 2012

Resident of Toronto, passed away in his sleep on January 17, 2012. Gordon was born in Blackpool, England to Elizabeth Sneddon and Edward O'Donald on April 6th, 1944. Gordon is survived by his daughters Holly Ann and Amanda Elizabeth. Gordon was an independent, fun loving charmer who loved life in Toronto, exploring astronomy, photography, painting, music, and spending time with friends down at the local Pub. A Wake will be held for Gordon at "The Old Nick" Pub (123 Danforth Avenue) on Sunday January 22nd at 4 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Toronto Cat Rescue.

Previous Events

Wake

JAN 22. 4:00 PM (ET)

The Old Nick Pub
123 Danforth Avenue

Tribute Wall

RK

“Gord Sneddon was very knowledgeable about amateur astronomy, and really enjoyed stargazing. He was enthusiastic and I enjoyed his visits to our store and the conversations we shared about the night sky a while ago.
He was a kind and gentle man. Will be missed! Our sincere condolences to his family for your loss.

Ray Khan - February 07, 2012 at 11:14 AM