

Harry Alexander Wilson

January 14, 2021

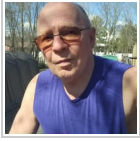

WILSON, Harry Alexander, (age 81), passed away on January 14, 2021, at The Salvation Army Toronto Grace Health Centre in Toronto.

Harry was born in Springhill, Nova Scotia, on February 25, 1939. He completed graduate school at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education and remained in Toronto for the remainder of his life.

Harry is survived by his son; Shane Alexander, of whom he was deeply proud, his brother; Howard, nephews; Will and David along with their families, as well as many friends in Nova Scotia and Ontario. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him and lovingly remembered as a father, brother, uncle and friend.

If desired, friends may make memorial contributions to The Toronto Grace Health Centre, 650 Church Street, or St. Michael's Hospital, 30 Bond Street, both organizations having had a significant role in Harry's care.

Tribute Wall

“ We were good friends in Toronto between 1972-1975. Harry was about 10 years older than I. He recalled going to school with Anne Murray. Though we studied psychology together, Harry left the University of Toronto to sell real estate. I remember he drove a Volvo after starting his real estate career. He and his then-wife Leslie lived on Keewatin Ave for several years.

Laurence Hunt - August 01, 2025 at 02:27 AM