“ I was saddened to hear of the loss of Mrs. Hedy Yonekura. Mrs. Yonekura was instrumental in the start of the Toronto Buddhist Church Choir and spent many years not only running it but participating and singing in the Soprano section. She will be deeply missed. Our condolences go to her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and her many family members.

“ I am saddened to read about her passing. Prior to the pandemic lockdowns, I quite enjoyed sitting at their dinner table and practising my Japanese, which Hedy would always correct! But she did so with the patience and attention of a good teacher, so I listened to her. I will miss hearing her calling the bingo numbers out in Japanese for the residence at Yee Hong. Though I didn't get a chance to know her well, she peaked my interest in “ natto” for which I am thankful. Rest in peace Hedy.
