

Mr. Horst Joseph Fischer

May 1, 2016

Dear Family and Friends.

As many of you know Horst "Opa" Fischer passed away on May 1, 2016 Horst is survived by his wife Gisela, two children Thomas (wife Gwen) & Caroline and grandchildren Nathaniel, Annelisa and Janessa.

We look forward to celebrating his life with you at...

Church: St. Anne's Catholic Church

Address: 115 Vodden Street East, Brampton

Date: May 12th, 10:30 am with reception to follow

We would ask that instead of flowers or gifts that people donate to their charity of choice or Horst's charity of choice, Habitat for Humanity.

He enjoyed his time volunteering on the Brampton Habitat sites when he was able. This link can be used to make memorial donations to Habitat for Humanity GTA.

We are also considering the possibility of a Habitat Build Day to pay tribute to Horst.

Thank you for the many kind thoughts, prayers and memorial donations.

“ We spent four seasons at the Big Oak Trailer Park with Horst, Gisela and Archie as our neighbours. We enjoyed many evenings with them sitting around a campfire. We would share stories of growing up in Newfoundland and they would share stories about their life in Germany, their winters in Florida, as well as their farm life here in Ontario. Ron and Horst talked about their work life and he was always interested to hear about Ron's work at Inco. We enjoyed spending time with them at the lake and just dropping by for a visit to talk about their tomato plants and their flowers. We are saddened to hear of Horst's passing and our thoughts and prayers are with Gisela and the family. Rest in Peace Horst. Ron & Joscelyn Budgell
