“ It has taken some time to be able to share. I know Howie would be proud of himself for shocking us with the timing of his passing. He loved to shock people, either in speech or action. My big brother was my hero, protector and bully chaser. When I had nowhere to turn, he turned to me. I remember vividly coming out of the doors of the Kindergarten in Richmond Hill and being so happy to see him on the ten-speed bike he had worked and paid for himself. He would lift me up, put me on the crossbar and make sure I got home safely. In later years just telling a potential bully that Howie was my big brother was like having a personal body guard, he didn't even have to be close by. It may surprise people to know that in school Howie was an excellent athlete and brilliant at math and trigonometry. Although he changed his focus when a family with a beautiful daughter named Brenda moved in 2 doors down. They married and started building their family. His family was everything to Howie, he was so proud of you all.

I'm so sorry for your loss Brenda, Steve and Lisa. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love to you all,
Carol*

Hey Howie,

Wagonburner here.

From the first time I met you when ibwas 14 years old(42 years ago), I seen a man that loved his family so fiercely and worked 3 jobs to provide. I respect and admire you so much and enjoyed the drinks and good times that we shared.

You were a Warrior right to the end!

Enjoy your best journey Howie!

I love you!
