“Christine and family, I am so sorry for your loss of your dad. I remember all the times your family would pick me up and take me to the schoolhouse for the weekend when we were younger. I also remember how good your dad and mom were to my mom, taking her to all the plays and having her over for dinner. My mom and I looked forward to seeing your dad and you every week until the pandemic hit. Now your mom, dad and my parents are reunited in heaven.

Thank you so much, Nancy. It was so good of you and Audrey to come regularly to see my dad. He loved your visits, and enjoyed talking about all of the fun times we had together over the years.

My mom also enjoyed making the peanut butter and jam sandwiches for him.
