“ My Aunt Ila has always been one of the most important people in my life. It has been so difficult accepting my new normal- my life without her in it.

I remember so well our family gatherings at her cottage, and Christmas gatherings at her house. She was the consummate hostess and an incredible cook.

Aunt Ila was always the first to think of others. If you were sick, she would be right over with a pot of potato soup.

She never finished a phone conversation without saying I love you. I always admired her strength, especially since Uncle Frank passed away. She was fiercely supportive of her family and friends, and especially her children.

Aunt Ila I know we will meet again, but until then I will love and miss you every day. You were one of a kind and the world is emptier with you gone.

I love you. ❤️❤️❤️

I am truly going to miss my big sister so much. I can remember her sharing her lovely clothes with me, if I asked, and if I didn't ask she would get very angry but soon would forgive me. Ila always had her hair done so perfectly. She would take me to the hairdresser and give me ideas on how to have mine done. She certainly new how to dress and looked so beautiful all the time. She would call every week when we all moved apart and always made it easy to keep up with all our families. We had wonderful times at her cottage and so enjoyed the wonderful meals, some of which came from Frank's garden. Sooo good. In later years she was very busy keeping Heidi occupied. She was always involved in her fundraising and so much more. The calendar on her cupboard was always full with appts, DR's appts, family visits and so her days were always busy. She loved to have down time for reading and playing solitaire on her computer, which did not happen very often. I miss her and know we will all be together again in the distant future. You are at rest now. God Bless. Jean, your little sister
