“ Robin and Phil, you know Ahmad and I are thinking about you and the kids right now. Strange how everyone has a “food story”! I seem to recall making butter tarts for Rene when she was with you in Ajax.

Rene, you were funny, feisty and sometimes a little crusty but more importantly you were a mother and a grandmother and the family loved you very much!

Rob, rest easy, she's with your dad now.

“ Hey Rene - I remember fondly the afternoon you and I spent at Robin's house - she & Phil were away and I promised to visit. I brought a bottle of white wine and my pack of smokes and you and I shared that bottle of wine, and smoked our smokes while you shared so many memories of Bill with me. You confided in me like a friend and that's when I really started to understand you and loved you more for it. You and my mom had a few things in common and I will miss you truly. The best part of that day was me taking the 'evidence' with me because I wasn't supposed to bring any wine!

You're in my thoughts Rene and I'll keep an eye out for Robin!

“ Remember going with Robin to Rene's house for our lunch breaks - Rene wouldn't eat, she would rather have a cigarette, but she would always have food for me and Rob.

Bet you are still enjoying your cigarettes in heaven! I hope they are cheaper up there!!!!

“ "Reenie Bean" was my nickname for you. I think you liked it.

You were never one to mince words and always told it like it was. I have many fond memories of the family gatherings that I was lucky enough to share.

Black Forest Cake and chocolate cherries will always remind me of you.

I hope you are doing crosswords in heaven and that you find your egg cup.

The love of a mother starts before birth and endures forever in our hearts.

*Love and remembrance,
Sue XOXO*
