“ Dear Cousins. My deepest condolences on learning of my Uncle Izadores' passing. All of my memories growing up were of the great times on Queen Street..(from Euchre nights, Christmases, Halloween nights and my Uncle putting on his apron and cooking up his famous spaghetti and meatballs and of course sausage. They were as fun as fun can be. Also, fishing off the dock and catching Pike and dog fish in Fesserton. The list goes on and on. My Uncle gave me a chance of growing up with my great cousins, Darlene, Barbara, Karen and John. To them, I am very very sorry. He was also one of the most kindest and giving persons I have ever known. Thank you Uncle Izadore for all the wonderful memories ...(RIP} My love always. Mike Chalk.

Thank-you for your last words being "I Love You" ...and ... Thank-you for being more than a Father-in Law ... but for being a friend... See you the Milky Way xo
