

James Henry Harris

February 3, 2024

James Henry Harris (December 8, 1937 - February 3, 2024) was born in Grand Falls, Newfoundland and passed in Alliston, Ontario with family by his side. Always the gentleman, he is remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle, friend and was a longtime employee of McBee Systems. Jim's life was filled with family, golf, cards, world history, friendships and laughter. A small remembrance will be held in the summer when family and friends can gather. Condolences may be made at www.aftercare.org. In lieu of flowers, donations to Matthews House Hospice or a charity of your choice would be appreciated. Go Habs Go!

“ So sorry to hear of Jim’s passing. My condolences to all the family. We met at the 54 club and we discovered that he was from Grand Falls and I am from Bishops Falls. We always had lots to chat about. RIP Jim. You will be missed.

“ Jim was a great friend, golfing buddy and neighbour here in Green Briar. He was always quick with the one liners - if you don't get it to the hole, you'll miss it 100% of the time - and stories from the past - do you remember that play Beliveau made in 1959? One time we were on the first tee and Jimmy struggled a bit to get his tee set up. He stood up and said, " Boy, this is a tough course." I can hear his little giggle now!! RIP my friend and fellow Hab's fan. You will be remembered with a smile!

“ Jim was a wonderful neighbour on Eastgate Crescent. Always a joker. He was part of the threesome that liked to go to the track. My dad Gordon Shelby the senior, Les Moulds the middle guy and dear Jim the young'un. Jim being the youngest drove the guys to the track. Even to Mohawk. Great memories of him Joanne and the kids during those times. Thinking of Jim brings a smile to my face. Condolences to the family. Heather Shelby Gerroir

“ I'll miss you my friend aka "Rod Stewart ". A gentleman par excellence. Thinking of the good times we had at club Locarno, sitting on your balcony watching you BBQ. A wonderful dad and husband to Jo. Always did as he was told lol with a muttering of swear words in between. I always called Jim when I needed a history lesson or had a good joke to share with him. There aren't enough words to describe my "Rod". Kind, great sense of humour, loyal, a true friend, empathetic.....just an all round great guy and I'll miss him so much. RIP and say hello to Jack when you see him. Pam xoxo
