“ Uncle Jim

*It's hard to even fathom that you're no longer with us. I feel so fortunate that I was able to spend some time with you surrounded by your great friends and our family at your time of need. Our future family gatherings will forever be missing you whether it was your memories of our family or your great laugh. I keep passing by our final text messages and I am still in disbelief that you're gone. Love you forever,
Jarrod and Jessica*

“ STRENGTH and KINDNESS

Mom always worried that Jim would need to be protected but he proved us all wrong.

Jim was very conscientious about being loyal to his close friends while growing up and this resulted in being life long friends with John and Tony to name a few.

You never know about a persons true character until death is near as happened so quickly with our Jim.

Not once did he question why me but he did say I need a bit more time as I have more to do.

My sister and I listened to Jim in his final days as he asked if palliative care was the right choice or to continue with his struggle. To put that trust in family at lifes end shows the true faith that Mom and Dad had imparted onto James.

James you will be remembered for all the good deeds that you performed and may you be rewarded for your thoughtfulness in the coming days.

Your kindness to strangers in moments of tragedy and your willingness to help stray kitties embellished your true spirit of looking after others.

We will miss you at our family get togethers but will never forget you brother.

We might even save you a shrimp or two.

With all our Love

Doug & Anne
