“ Jean was such a great lady, always cheerful and eager to challenge herself, by doing paintings of things she loved, such as nature and painting her son's who have inspired her in many ways!
She enjoyed also making knitted bags, she helped me with my knitting- I kept my bags simple, just straight knitting , while she followed an intricate pattern.
Jean will be greatly missed and I hope she's in a better place.
I am grateful to have met her. I admire her for taking on new challenges and always wanting to learn new things.
Rest in Peace, my friend.

“ Jean was always game for doing spontaneous things...like risking the wrath of a Hell's Angel motorcyclist when I got her to sit on his bike for a photo opp while the biker guy went into the Beer store to buy booze!

One of Jean's favourite things to do was to watch Trevor perform...so off we went on to trips to Montreal and Vegas where we took lots of photos!

Another of Jean's favourite things was developing an interest in painting which gave her a lot of joy. For this, she said it was Derek's artistic talent that got her interested in trying her hand at it. As it turned out, she was very good at it and it gave her a lot of joy!

Jean's proudest achievement, however, was raising 2 boys who grew into wonderful and responsible adults! We often bragged about who had the best kids...and she always insisted SHE did...while I also insisted I did! We agreed We eventually agreed we both had the best kids in the world!

Jean had a great sense of humour! When I challenged her once as to who had the biggest boobs, she got up, picked up my musical maracas and shoved them under her sweater! The photos I took of her and her big 'maracas' gave us a lot of laughs over the years!

Jean was never a complainer and often commented on how lucky she was to have great kids, a wonderful daughter-in-law, and of course, the most wonderful grandkids in the world!

Jean was incapable of saying unkind words, and was the most positive person I've ever known!

She added so much such joy to my life and she will never be forgotten! And now that she's secured her place in heaven, I'm going to try harder to be a better person so we can be re-united there when it's my time to go! But I may need your prayers to get me there...so get on your knees and start praying for me, ok?

Love
