“ Jean Paul. You have been so wonderful to me the last few months that I've gotten to know you. I know it been too long. I couldn't find the words to put on paper. However you taught me to be true to myself. You'll be missed. The photo of his tree on Dec 25 2021

“ I used to work with JP, I had no idea he passed until today. I walked past his home and noticed his truck wasn't there and started to wonder. JP and I spent many summers together landscaping and renovating. Learned some of the most important things from him. I'm so sad to know he is gone. He will be missed. Rest in peace buddy. Hope to see you again one day. Thank you for everything.

“ I will miss him deeply. Good friend, always there to help. I saw him just few days before passing to bring him schnitzels he craved. Joked about going skiing together sometime. He left unfinished framing of my Camino Ways "passports" that have sentimental value for me.
Who is handling his estate? Please contact me 416-939-6118.

“ Hello, My name is Dee and our family was a client of JPs for over 10 years in two homes. JP was a welcome weekly visitor who would always have a chat with me and then go about what he loved - taking care of gardens. He would share stories of his life and loves - always entertaining. The last message we exchanged was fittingly on Valentine's Day Feb 14th one month before he passed. I'm grateful that he is out of his painful misery and has joined his family in a heavenly place. I know he was spiritual and will hope he is looking down on everyone who had the pleasure of knowing and working with him. I am working on a new flowerbed in my garden this spring and I will dedicate a new tree I plant in his loving memory. Rest in Peace.

“ Jean Paul was so talented. Every season he came by our home to plant the most beautiful arrangements in our outdoor urns. He always had a huge smile for everyone. In the little spare time he had, he would come by to paint our deck or plant annuals in our garden. At times, he brought us lovely orchids he found at the market “just because”. He left cards for us during the holidays in his beautiful, looping handwriting. Once, I loved a card he had given us. The next time he came by, he brought 10 of those cards for me! He was just very special and my husband and I (actually our kids also) will miss him terribly. We texted last on Jan 1. He had just come home and we hoped this would be the year he would heal. I'm so sad that was not to be. May he Rest In Peace, and may your wonderful memories sustain you in your sorrow. Linda and David

“ When I think about JP, I can't help but think about how kind and generous he was. We have twin girls, and JP, because he too was a twin, always felt a special connection to them. Every Valentine's Day, Easter, Summer Break and Christmas, JP would show up at our door with gifts and candies for the girls. They adored him.

His energy, enthusiasm, commitment to detail, and kindness will be missed.

Wherever he is right now, I assure you, there are two stunning urns at the gates or door :)

He always took lots of care, picking out the twins gifts. Today is his birthday and I hope he is celebrating with his brother

“ JP loved Christmas. He had this amazing talent and would impress his clients with beautiful urns and decorations around their homes. While he was in the hospital, and enduring high doses of chemo, he prepared Christmas cards and wrapped gifts. He thought of every staff member that worked on the floor he was on. Even the cleaning staff. He had cards with special notes in them to show they touched him in some special way. He told me that if he could put a smile on someone's face, it would make him smile also. I'm honoured to have known JP and I send my deepest sympathy to you and the family. I will miss him dearly.
