“ Remembering Jeff is like taking a stroll down my own memories, when growing up in Oshawa, our Mom's who were sisters would visit often, and we would be together all the time. My fondest memories included getting dirty in the field at the end of their road. I was such a girl and Jeff showed me that it was okay to get a little messy every once in awhile. I am guessing it was okay since I am a mother of three boys, and doing fine. What a great man Jeff had become, someone to be proud of, someone who became a father himself. Thanks, Love forever....Doris
