

Mr. Jeffrey Alfred Hamilton

August 15, 2016

It is with profound sadness that we share the passing of Jeff Alfred Hamilton on Monday, August 15 in Toronto.

Our inimitable Jeff was a lot of things - loving and devoted father to Zoe and Fiona; beloved and dedicated son to Catherine and Donald; big brother to Janie and her husband Rick, Susan and her husband Richard, Dave, and honorary sister-from-another-mother Audrey; far-out uncle to Jackie, Dana, Bryan, Sean and Oscar; and buddy to the many friends he made over the years and through his world travels.

His love of the Montreal Canadiens, The Ramones and The Big Lebowski was legend. His lifelong socialist worldview inspired many political debates - as well as a fair amount of teasing about his unfortunate and ironic bang-on resemblance to Stephen Harper.

But it was his tremendous love for and pride in his daughters, Zoe and Fiona, that will remain most in our hearts. His will to live for them was surpassed only by the ravages of the illness that he was diagnosed with just five short weeks ago.

Not too surprisingly, Jeff did not want a traditional funeral, nor did he want people wasting their money on flowers. So, the immediate family will celebrate his life at the chapel at his mother's care facility.

A drink-up will follow at a local watering hole; time and place to be determined. Jeff was quite clear on the dress code for this event: cut off shorts and shirts recognizing the aforementioned cultural institutions. Don't even think of showing up in a suit.

The Dude Abides.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ *Jeff was one of my very close friends for many years.
He was without a doubt the most humerous individual I,ve ever known.
His laugh was contagious and he was always smiling.
He made the world a better place to live in.
Colin*

colin brown - August 19, 2016 at 02:15 PM