“ It is with so much sadness to hear of Jenny's passing!
I lived just shown the hall from Jenny, Kally, Nicholas on 1299 Danforth when I was working full time as a nurse and encountered the "crisis' of needing a new babysitter for my 3 year old son, Ben. How fortunate I was to have known Jenny her 2 children. After me dealing with the guilt of having Ben crying and fighting at having to go to the babysitters whenever I had to work-- suddenly he couldn't wait to go!
I was so happy! To have people besides yourself love fuss over your child as if he was a family member meant the world to me then as much as it does this minute!
Ben had his own special treats in their home Kally Nicholas were amazing at playing keeping him entertained.
Jenny alway's remained a very special friend to me we kept in touch right up to about 6 years ago.
My sister, Rosemary, who also knew Jenny, just notified me of her passing and I am so sad and upset.
She was an amazing lady with a big heart and an incredible way of helping others without being asked. She seemed to sense what help I needed and offered to help in the exact form in which I needed it!
On behalf of myself my son, Benjamin, I extend my heartfelt condolences to Kally, Nicholas, and rest of family.
Jenny will be missed but I know she is in a much better place.
"Thankyou Jenny, for ALL YOU HELP WONDERFUL FRIENDSHIP over the years"!!!
Much love...Juliette Benjamin MacDonald. 🌸

“ Jennifer and I met back in the summer of grade 6 and became instant friends. She was a beautiful soul, with a kind heart. Although through the years we would go on our own paths, we always managed to reconnect and resume our friendship as it always was. Sadly, we had lost contact in the last few years, and I never knew she was ill, and I never got to say goodbye. This I will always regret.

Jenn, rest in peace. I love you, always will.
