

Jennifer Mary Wall

September 13, 2023

In the early hours of September 13th, 2023, Jennifer Wall peacefully passed away.

Jennifer was a beloved daughter, sister, and a newlywed, having married her love, Edward Wrong this past May. She was also an adored niece, cousin, aunt and friend.

Jenn was a force to be reckoned with and tackled every challenge head on. She was fierce and unfailingly positive through endless doctors appointments and treatments over the past 3 years.

Jennifer is predeceased by her older brother Scott, and is now joined among the stars with her Dad, Leo John Wall who passed away on September 15th, 2023, just 2 days after Jenn.

Jennifer is survived by her mother Edith Wall (McCrate) and sister Rosalee. She is also survived by her husband Edward Wrong.

A celebration of life will be held for Family and Friends at Bridlewood Presbyterian Church, 2501 Warden Avenue, Toronto, on Monday, September 25th, 2023 at 2 pm. Reception to follow.

“I have gotten to know Jenn over my past 10 years at Torys. Jenn was always incredibly creative and I had a blast collaborating with her in planning events. She always brought enthusiasm and a calm demeanor to everything she did. She was a presence at Torys and will be greatly missed. Sending love and condolences to her family.”

“ Jennifer Wall - I have known Jennifer for many years. We sat beside each other many years ago. She was kind and had a heart of gold. My most recent memory was a few years ago. I had a work client emergency, Jennifer (who at the time I could tell was not feeling well but I had no idea about her cancer) jumped right in without hesitation. That was just the kind of person she was. Rest in peace and my deepest sympathies for her family. She will be greatly missed.

“ Dear Edith, Rosalee, and Richard,
Jenn was a beautiful person, and a treasured colleague. She was so dedicated, always professional and calm under pressure. She could pull a rabbit out of her hat. She brought warmth and kindness to everything she did. We will miss her so very much at Torys. She made us better. We won't forget her.

“ So many memories, have been swimming in my head since I heard the news. Prom night, spent on the Wall's family room floor. When I specifically asked no one to come to hospital; and both Edith and Jenn showed up. Jenn saved me, Toronto Western had no business serving fish in the 90s. Jenn convincing me I didn't need to be Athletic to be on the Athletic Council. Jenn was the best kind of friend there was, you just had to ask, and she was there. I am sending all of my love to you today and always; and will try to be in touch soon, with cookies and soup, if that will be welcome.

“ So sorry for your losses on both Jennifer and her dad. Jennifer was such a beautiful person inside and out and we will miss her dearly. Her smiles and happiness were infectious. I am better for knowing her. Rest well, sweet Jennifer. Wishing you all peace and comfort soon. Know that she is not far and that she lives on forever in your hearts.

Deepest sympathies.

“ Dear Edith, Rosalee, and Richard,

We were deeply saddened to hear about Jennifer's passing. It's still hard to believe that the last time I saw her this summer would be our final meeting. Jennifer was a bright and beautiful soul taken from us far too soon.

We have fond memories of Jennifer coming to our house to spend time with Ida. Watching them grow from girls into young women was a privilege, and those memories will always hold a special place in my heart. It's amazing how friendships formed during those formative years can leave such a lasting impact.

Even though life took us in different directions, the memories of Jennifer's warmth, kindness, and laughter have never faded. I am grateful for the moments we shared and the influence she had on all of us.

During this difficult time, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. Jennifer's memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. If there's anything I can do to support you, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Our Sympathies also go out to you on the passing of Leo. Now he and Jennifer will keep each other company together with Scott.

With heartfelt condolences,

The Perri family

“ Jennifer was a very special person who will be deeply missed by family, friends and colleagues alike. Jennifer had one of the hardest, if not the hardest, jobs at our firm. She carried out her work with excellence of the highest standard, caring for every detail. She did it with grace, style, good humour and kindness, even in times of great stress. She was a beloved colleague and leader who set the standard for professionalism with heart. Jennifer made her mark and will not be forgotten. Deepest condolences to the family.

“ Jennifer was a bright and happy spirit who truly loved and cared about her work and colleagues. It isn't often you meet a person who was as devoted and full of life as her. She was a huge inspiration for me and I will miss her dearly. My deepest and sincerest love goes out to her husband and family. May she rest peacefully.

“ Edith, Rosalee and Edward, My sincerest condolences on the passing of Jenn as well as Leo. I was lucky enough to get to know Jenn over the years, working with her to plan events in both Toronto and New York (where I am based). Her smile made her the brightest light in any room and there was a special twinkle in her eyes that was ever present. As many have said, Jenn always "had it covered" with anything that she was involved in at Torys. You might say- how important is a particular appetizer? champagne? name tag? But Jenn showed her love of her colleagues and our clients through each choice and her high attention to detail. Her events were always perfection. But my favorite part about working with Jenn was actually when we weren't working at all- the hugs when we would see each other in the hallways or the nice notes that she would send to just say hi! There are no words to express how much I will miss her and I wish that I could provide you with words of comfort. Thank you for sharing Jenn with us- especially these past few years. She made us all better people just for knowing her- including me- and I will be forever grateful to have known her. Sending love and prayers to each of you. Amy Johnson-Spina

“ How we will miss your spirit, Jennifer. It is difficult to capture in words, but those of us who worked with her will know what I mean.

When Jennifer walked into a room, she brought a strength and warmth that was undeniable. No matter what the daunting task or crisis before us, it was all going to be okay, because Jennifer would know what to do. The aplomb with which she took on the job was matched by an obvious and deep caring for her colleagues. Jennifer was in it right beside you, her sleeves rolled right up, ready for anything. She was gracious and down to earth at the same time in a way that was so refreshing - and, like her broad smile and easy humour, so infectious. Jennifer was a bright star, and she set a gold standard for all of us.

Jennifer, we will do our best without you.

And we will miss you so very much.

My deepest condolences.

“ Edith, Rosalee and Edward: I am deeply sorry for your loss. Jennifer was a joy to work with - the consummate professional, she was a role model and inspiring to all who had the good fortune of working with her. Her lively sense of humor would brighten our days and we will miss her so very much. Eileen McMahon (a work colleague of Jennifer's)

“ Jennifer was the type of person others wanted to emulate. She was smart, positive, determined, strong yet sensitive, compassionate and funny. Her strength knew no bounds and was tested to its fullest these last few years and in true Jennifer form she displayed amazing grace and fortitude always looking at the cup half full and searching for that silver lining. I feel blessed to have known Jennifer. The world is a lesser place without her in it. Miss you.

“ My deepest sympathy to Jen's family. Jen was such a caring, generous person, always ready to help. She was one of the first people I met when i joined Torys five years ago and she immediately made me feel welcomed and part of the Torys family. Throughout the years I've had the opportunity of working with Jen and enjoyed every minute of her positive, can-do attitude and great smile!

“ Jen was the one of the most supportive managers I've ever had, even more the first day we met she told me to consider her a friend and we've been friends ever since. We experienced the world changing together with covid, we got engaged and married around the same time. We shared many laughs and many tears together. Jen really was a great supportive friend you could go to about anything. If you were feeling down or sick, she was the first person to ask you how you are feeling and "who do I need to beat up?". Jen really has a big and put others first. You've left a long-lasting positive impact on me. Your memory lives with me forever.
