

Jill Louise Condry

December 10, 2020

It is with heavy hearts to announce Jill Louise Condry sadly passed away at her home on December 10th surrounded by close family and friends. She was truly one in a million and could light up any room with her fiery and loving spirit. She loved to travel, host dinner parties, spend time at her cottage and had a deep passion for caring for animals. She spent her spare time volunteering for the Clarington Animal Shelter.

Daughter to pre-deceased Gordan and Gloria, she will be greatly missed by her sister Lynn and Paul (Peter, pre-deceased), along with her six nieces and nephews and her long-time loving partner, Karl.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Ontario SPCA or Humane Society in your area would be appreciated.

Due to the current COVID environment, there will not be a celebration of life until we can safely do so in the new year.

“ Jill and I worked together at Sprint Canada. It was fast paced, ever changing and often stressful environment with everyone handling multiple projects. And yet nothing seemed so bad over a glass of wine at the King Georges Pub on Sheppard and Vic Park which Jill and I enjoyed visiting after work a few evenings a week. We attended agency briefings/parties, Sprints Christmas parties together. Jill and I became good friends and we saw each other outside work as well with our spouses. We lost touch for a while, but we reconnected again a couple of years ago. I'm so happy we did. Jill was the same - vivacious, full of ideas, fun and caring. We had both missed each other. And I will continue to miss her. I will miss her lovely throaty laugh and miss talking to her. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I hear of the passing of my dear friend Jilly. We had known each other since the 90's where we both owned a house on Keystone Ave. I will always remember the Friday afternoon chocolate martini parties starting on Jilly's porch and moving into the house as we partied on late into the evening. In later years as our lives changed as did our addresses, we continued to enjoy our friendship at the cottage including my daughter Natalie in the fun. I will forever miss Jill's sense of adventure and her positive outlook, that everything will work out. We will miss your laughter and your smile Jilly, until we meet again my dear friend. Much love Lizzy

“ Jill jumped into our life years ago, when we met her on Stanley Road ("our road") and she was an instant hit to both my wife, Rita, and I...she had a vibrant, almost surreal personality that exuded her love of life. Believe me when I say she was never 'on the fence' with any of her thoughts - she was decisive, judgmental (in a positive way - and I like that, although it's not always popular amongst people nowadays) and she let you know exactly where she stood upon different items. She loved cottage life and loved to be one with nature... it was her 'quiet period' vs her 'job period', and that's understood. When she met Karl, both Rita & I jived with him - it was easy to enjoy them as a solid couple. We were shocked with the news regarding her health, and always will be; as the song goes "only the good die young". We'll sorely miss her...unfortunately, her leaving really proves that life isn't fair. Jill - we both hope you're at peace and 'living it up' in heaven!

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Jill dating back to the 60's. I am so blessed to have had her in my life for so many years. Although I moved to Calgary in '94 and later to Kelowna, we have remained friends. Always a phone call away and never skipped a beat! I am thankful for my visits back to Ontario to spend time at Jill's cottage and to gather with our Bridlewood girls. Jill was certainly the glue to keeping us all together. I loved and admired her great spirit, her endless energy, her sense of humour, her artistic talents, her kindness, her love of nature and her ability to charge up a room! Always a joy to be around! She will be deeply missed by all. My condolences, to the love of her life, Karl and to all family members. May all of you be comforted by the outpouring of love flowing your way and may your memories comfort you. My love goes out to all of you. Hugs, Sharon Maslen (McVicar)

“ It is with a very heavy heart that we say goodbye to Jill and may she be at peace with her continued journey.

I knew Jill 40 years from our early days at Coca-Cola, our endless hours playing competitive ball with Jill on 1st and me on 2nd turning a few double plays in our day.

In 1986, what was considered the largest mixed only slow pitch tournament in Canada with 92 teams competing in Scarborough, The Quinn's Out to Lunch Bunch clinches Division One championship sending us to Niagara Falls to compete in the Ontario championships.

Whenever Jill and I got together there was always time for a game or challenge including ping pong, billiards, darts and of course many putting competitions.

We had so many good times from a holiday in Jamaica, meeting Karl and playing golf and enjoying time at each other's homes.

I will miss you Jilly❤️

XOXO

Until we meet again.

“ Jill and I met many years ago at Cantel and little did I know at the time that we would become such close friends. Our office pods were side by side and she would throw paper airplanes over to my desk with notes in them; like in school, they actually had to separate us because we just kept distracting each other. I can't even begin to tell you the shenanigans that we were up to over the years; beautiful and hilarious memories to always make me smile. Until we meet again my friend XOXO

“ I knew Jill for 50 years and loved her from day one. She was intelligent, full of energy and could conquer any room with her smile and enthusiasm. She shared one of those rare, deeply devoted loves with Karl and she was more concerned about him than herself all the way through her battle with cancer.

Jill was a special, irreplaceable woman and she will be missed by me and everyone who knew her!

“ Since Jill came into Karls life I was lucky enough to see her love him fiercely. When he was with her she brought out a soft side in him that was a joy to watch. I'm so glad he met her. She was smart, giving and so animated. I just wish I could have heard more of her great stories and adventures. RIP Jill. Such a huge loss.

“ I met Jill over 16 years ago when we both started a new job with the Toronto Police Service. She exploded into the room like a whirlwind and I thought, who the heck is this chick?? I didn't think I was going to like her at first because our personalities were so different but that was about to change.

Jill and I became fast friends. She and I worked 3-11 pm many nights and we really got to know each other because it was just the two of us. We got up to all kinds of shenanigans at the “cop shop.” One time we decided we needed a tv in our office, so Jill stood on the filing cabinet while I fished the cable from the sergeant's office into our room through the drop ceiling. Every night we went through this routine so we could watch tv while we worked. Everything was harmless but nevertheless naughty behaviour.

She was a great confidante, and a good listener. I could always rely on Jill if I needed a shoulder to cry on, and she me. We had many deep conversations about life, especially when I'd have a sleepover or when we'd go to the cottage. Jill was an amazing cook too, often making us delicious meals that she threw together with whatever was in the fridge.

We also shared some of the same passions. One winter I called Jill and told her I was feeling down and she challenged me to take a night course, she would too. I took a painting class and started painting again. She helped me find a passion I'd forgotten I had, which helped me get through the winter blues. She also started painting and so we shared our passion for art together and met up to paint. Her first real finished piece was her Masai warriors, and she was really proud, using techniques she had learned from her father, who was also an artist. I was really impressed by her talent. She had so many.

The pics I shared are us probably one of the last times we were together at the cottage. We had a fantastic time as always. I love you Jill and you'll be missed but forever in my heart! ❤️

“ I will never forget you, and that voice. It was just a few yrs ago that I was working in a little small town bakery and hadn't seen or heard from you in over 20yrs. There is when I heard that undeniable voice of Jill Condy "hello" Sandra! I'm so glad you came in that bakery that day ❤️

“ Jilly, loved the dinners; our visits to The McMichael Gallery and ROM exhibits; galavanting downtown then stopping for a beer; going to the Royal, Home shows, Distillery District and so much more; the day we had to help your beloved Bella deliver her kittens. Your laughter was infectious, your talents many and you will always be missed...rest peacefully my friend! Love Ilona xo

“ Jill reached out to a few women in the Bowmanville area to get together, socialize, form friendships. She was so much fun, so vibrant, so fearless. I will never forget the time we went out to dinner and she crawled over to the next table and photo bombed a large gathering of people getting a group photo taken. Never a dull moment when Jill was in the room. She will be missed, but never forgotten. ❤️

“ Jilly. You brought out the sparkle in me. You made me better....forever. Thank-you so much for being in my life. These 2 pictures capture your amazing playful soul and our incredible love for each other. You were authentic and passionate in everything you did. I look forward to seeing you up there so we can experience and do all that we planned. Love you binky XO. To borrow from Jill "Only the best". Your love Karl
