“ John served as our corporate counsel from our incorporation in 1986, and he was a key advisor to our board. Indeed, John helped us grow, and I always felt, and knew, that Geosoft was more than just a client to John. John acted like one of our founders.

I remember him fondly, especially his dry and pragmatic perspective. John always brought me back to planet Earth, which I valued immensely.

And I'll miss phoning him and hearing his very short, to the point "hello" followed by silence for me to fill. John's "hello" felt more like "tell me what you want, and be quick about it". I did my best...
