“ We send our very sincere condolences to the family of John. He was such a great character - so full of mischief and lots of fun. When John and Alison lived downtown we enjoyed many a great visit - with lots of story telling and laughter. Thinking about you all. May John's spirit travel with him. Jim and Joyce McCready.

“ We were sad to learn of Johnny's death. He always had a joke or a funny story to tell and a nice hug to give. As a real estate agent many years ago, he came to our rescue and we were always grateful to him for his assistance. Our condolences to those close to Johnny.

“ Very sorry to hear from Al of the passing of John. I remember meeting him for the first time around 1967, when he was working as a carpenter with Mr. Anthony, and together they did a beautiful job of completely finishing our entire basement on Glenmar. Although Al and I were good friends at that time, I didn't know John was Al's uncle till later. Every time I met John over the last 50 years, he was always a great conversationalist, and listener. Always asking and curious about others lives. John will be greatly missed, for sure. To all of John's relatives, please accept my deep and sincere condolences.
