“ I don't know if this is John Andrew Koczak but if it is, he was my first love. We dated when I was 16 back in 1991 for 3 years. I have always wondered what became of him. Back when I knew him he was bright, funny and very intelligent. He lived life on the edge and that sometimes got the better of him, but he was a kind and loving person with a ton of potential. We parted ways when I went off to school in 1996. Although I am happily married with 3 wonderful children, the memory of him still haunts my dreams. I only wished the best for him, I hope he has found some peace. Xoxo
