

John Ziedonis Latuns

April 4, 2022

John Ziedonis Latuns, died April 3, 2022 of Thornhill, Ontario. He died unexpectedly, but peacefully in his home of cancer. He was 77 years old.

John was born April 1, 1945. He was born in Latvia, grew up in Kitchener and lived most of his life in the Greater Toronto Area. He married Susan Ruth Newton and brought her to Bradford in the early 80's where they spent many happy years together. He was exceptionally proud of his three sons, Adam, Chris and Matt.

John worked at Bell Canada as a Line Technician and trainer for a couple of years until he retired in 2010. John loved music, especially rock and country. He enjoyed collecting records and had a large collection. His favourite artist was Leroy "Roy" Buchanan. John was always up for a concert or a music festival.

John enjoyed spending time with his family, and he loved them very much. John is survived by his children: Adam, Chris and Matt Latuns, his brothers, Edward and Martin Legis. The family asks that in lieu of flowers that donations be made to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Tribute Wall

TA

“ Many fond memories enjoying drinks and laughs on the patio with John....most heartfelt condolences to Adam and his brothers....he will be sadly missed.

Tim Adam - April 09, 2022 at 01:34 PM

CF

“ *Uncle John when we would come to visit I was quite young but I remember you as my goofy silly uncle john even as a grown up u were still smiling and laughing. Oh that laugh i will always remember that. My deepest condolences to my cousins
RIP Uncle John*

courtney fetter - April 08, 2022 at 03:52 AM

CL

“ *With my heart felt condolences. I always hear nothing but great admiration for brother John, from Ed. He will be deeply missed.
Carina, Ed's friend .*

Carina Lawrence - April 07, 2022 at 12:36 PM

PL

“ My special cousin John always wanted the best for everyone . He loved to debate those difficult topics . I will miss those long phone calls....always love you . Cousin Pete and family❤️

Peter Lasmanis - April 07, 2022 at 12:06 PM

JL

“ John was my Uncle, and although I didn't see him a lot during the course of my life, I loved him.
I only ever experienced love and kindness from him.

-- James Latuns 🙌 & ❤️

James Latuns/Nephew of John Latuns - April 06, 2022 at 05:52 PM