

John Malcolm Livingstone

September 15, 2023

John Malcolm Livingstone

May 10, 1951-September 15, 2023

John, age 72, died peacefully at Baycrest Centre after a long hospital stay. He will be mourned by his sister Anne and close friends Marta & Scott. John had a great sense of humour and kind, friendly manner that will be missed by many.

Born out west, John's family moved to Willowdale when he was 10 and he remained in Toronto. He always enjoyed trips to visit extended family in Nova Scotia. John loved playing guitar and singing (sometimes songs he wrote) at gatherings. John was also interested in history. Throughout his adult life he was a dedicated (obsessive?) movie buff.

John had at least one cat most of his life. Recently he was glad that his beloved Black Dahlia was taken in by Michael, a longtime neighbour.

Per John's wishes there will be no service. He supported the Toronto Humane Society, so donations in his honour would be appreciated.

Tribute Wall

“ John and I shared many long conversations about movies, politics and his dislike for gardening. We often agreed to disagree. I'll miss talking with him and hearing his point of view. My deepest sympathy to John's family and friends. Irene Herzuk

Irene Herzuk - September 26, 2023 at 07:45 PM

“ John was an active member at Lawrence Gardens Housing Co-operative. He shared his love of English movies with us, his passion for debates and his love of the coop. He is missed and we will cherish many fond memories of time with him. Deepest sympathy to his family.

Jean and Barbara Wallace - September 23, 2023 at 10:33 AM