

Mrs. Jovanka Tokin

December 21, 2012

Jovanka (Jana) Tokin, born Horovic, a long-time resident of the Toronto area, passed away Friday the 21st of December 2012. Born in 1925 in Belgrade , Serbia , Jovanka received her education at the University of Belgrade.

Jovanka was a interpreter in the diplomatic corps , throughout her working career, until retirement in 1985, when she moved to Canada to join her family and help raise her grandson. Jovanka enjoyed the performing arts, travelling, reading, socializing with friends, and had a wonderful sense of humour. She is survived by her daughter, Marina Mihailovich , grandson George Mihailovich and his fiancé Diana Nguyen , son-in-law Branko Mihailovich, and the Horovic-Nachman family. A memorial service will be held on Saturday January 5, 2013 from 1 pm to 3 pm at Aftercare Toronto located on 1097 O'Connor Drive .

“ Three years ago I lost one of my grandmothers but I will always have my Maka. I know you are up there watching how your love has lived on and continues to touch your family. I can feel you smiling.
Love, George

Pred tri godine sam izgubio jednu od moje bake ali cu uvek imati moju Maku. Mi svi osecamo tebo odozgo i cujemo tvoj osmeh. Do sledeceg puta Maki, voli te tvoj Djordje.

George Mihailovich - December 22, 2015 at 09:07 AM

“ Today, Decemer 21/2015 marks three years that I have lost my Mom, matriarch of our Family.....we lost our Maka, but she will stay with us for ever, she will be always remembered and loved by her family and friends....she will never be forgotten both in Belgrade (Serbia) and Toronto (her last home).
You are always with us.
