

Mrs. Judith Anne Salvatori

March 1, 2013

After a courageous battle with cancer, Judy passed away peacefully on March 1st, 2013 at Toronto East General Hospital at the age of 68.

Predeceased by beloved husband Evo (2007), and survived by loving and devoted daughter Nadia, sister Anne King, brother John Mikus and his wife Shirley, sisters-in-law: Ann-Marie Mikus, Irene Mikus, Saara Mickusz and Eva Cresswell and her husband Warren. Predeceased by sisters: Adeline and her husband Lionel Olsson, Marie and her husband John Wiznuk, and brothers: Freddie, Peter, Mike, and Henry. Fondly remembered and greatly missed by her many nieces, nephews, extended family, and very dear friends.

Family and friends may visit at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church, 17955 Leslie St., Newmarket, on Thursday, March 7th from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. Funeral Mass at 11 a.m. followed by a reception and celebration of Judy's life in the church hall. In lieu of flowers, kindly make donations in memory of Judy to the Canadian Cancer Society at www.cancer.ca

“ Miss you everyday. I know that you would have been very upset to know that your death and obituary was used to be mean spirited to others, like my Mom. You know how I felt about you. I am happy that you and I had that last phone conversation where you shared your concerns about not having any say in your life. I tried to speak for you and my regret is that I failed you in this way. Sleep well Auntie Judy and I am sure your reunion in heaven with your siblings and other family members was joyous! I know I will see you again!

Thank You Cindy Gosselin, for posting your comments. This IS a place for love and remembrance of Auntie Judy, and I agree that Stephanie should remove her angry, selfish post.

Nora Smith - December 21, 2013 at 09:34 PM

Cindy and Nora...I did not say anything angry and selfish. It was so uncalled for to leave my Moms name out of an obituary and the truth is that Auntie Judy would have been quite upset with that mean slight. I spent much time helping out Auntie Judy when Uncle Vince died, so please stop with your self righteous comments. People who live in glass houses...I honoured her ALL THE TIME when she was alive!!!

stephanie micus - October 13, 2014 at 07:48 AM

What was uncalled for, Stephanie, was your Mom's letter to my Mom making excuses for your disgusting behaviour instead of consoling my mom in her last weeks. Did you honour her when she had to read the words you wrote about her husband when she herself was gravely ill? The last words she spoke of you were "I wish I never got back in touch with Stephanie." Do you honour her when you write things like this on her tribute wall? It was MY choice to leave your Mom's name off of the obituary, and I have NO regrets about it, nor would my Mom have been upset about it. And that I know for a fact. You have caused enough upset, and this is where it ends. You are not welcome to post anything on here again. And you are not welcome to publicly make comments about either of my parent's anymore. Worry about your own actions instead of what anyone else is doing.

*Thank You Nadia, for clearing that up. Stephanie is one selfish person. You spoke the truth Nadia, Stephanie needed to hear this. The truth hurts, right Stephanie? Practice saying the phrase Stephanie... judge not, lest ye be judged.*

“ "In tears we saw you sinking, and watched you fade away. What you suffered you told so few---you didn't deserve what you went through so God took you down to rest. His garden must be beautiful-- he only takes the best. When we saw you sleeping so peaceful and free from pain, we could not wish you back to suffer that again."

Gone too soon, forever loved, never to be missed.....we love you Judy. Nora.

“ Nadia, our deepest condolences to you and the Salvatori family. Our visits with Judy at the cottage were always fun. As a small child I always remember her making me feel special and she continued that with our kids. She enjoyed sitting around the campfire with us - chatting, singing and laughing. She was always smiling and happy and sharing that joy with all those around her. She will be dearly missed but very fondly remembered always.

“ Nadia we are very sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. Judy was such a wonderful warm person who always had a smile for you. The kids loved her at the school, she was a wealth of information. Your mom is part of the warmest memories I have of White River. Thinking of you and keeping you in our prayers.

“ We are saddened by the news of Judy's passing. We, as many immigrant families, will be forever grateful for the kindness shown by the Salvatoris. They are Pioneers in the true sense and in no small way have helped to "build" their little corner of Canada.

May God bless her and keep her by her beloved Evo's side along with Frank and Gina bathed by the Lord's ever shining light.

“ Very sorry to hear about the passing of your mom Nadia. You are in my thoughts tremendously. I can remember your mother very fondly as one of the most prominent and influential people in my life. She was my first teacher in my life, along with Ms. Monteith, and she became that caring and familiar face that made going to school way back then, something that was not all that fearful. She was very kind and patient and full of humour. Throughout my lifetime she never failed to show genuine interest in my life and in how I was doing. There has been no one quite like your mother, and there never will again. Cherish the memories you have with her. She was a wonderful woman. Thinking of you Nadia

Very well written Genevieve. It is true Nadia. There is not many people in this world like your mom. She was an amazing woman. She was always there for all 4 of our girls in school and out. She will truly be missed. White River is mourning one of our greatest. Always having a smile would put smiles on everyone's face. May you rest in peace Judy. You are with your true love now, and may you both look over Nadia throughout her life. We are all thinking of you Nadia at this time of sadness.
