

Ms. Julia Maria Isabel Saravia Torricos

March 4, 2018

Con profunda tristeza lamentamos comunicar el sensible fallecimiento de quien en vida fue Julia María Isabel Saravia Torricos.

It is with immense sadness that we announce the passing away of Julia María Isabel Saravia Torricos.

C'est avec profonde tristesse que nous avons le regret d'annoncer la mort de Julia María Isabel Saravia Torricos.

Nuestra querida mamá Julia fue el mayor ejemplo de trabajo, de generosidad y solidaridad con el prójimo. Vivió su vida por los demás. Ante las dificultades: trabajo; ante las penas: alegría inagotable; ante la soledad: mucha amistad; ante las penas y dificultades de otros, apoyo solidario, con actos concretos.

Our dear mother Julia was the greatest example of hard work, generosity and solidarity. She lived her life for the good of others. In the face of difficulties: work; in the face of sorrows: inexhaustible joy; in the face of loneliness: much friendship; in the face of the pain and difficulties challenging her family, friends and strangers, solidarity with concrete acts.

Notre chère mère Julia fut le plus bel exemple de travail acharné, de générosité et de solidarité. Elle a vécu sa vie pour le bien des autres. Face aux difficultés: le travail; face aux tristesses: une joie inépuisable; face à la solitude: beaucoup d'amitié; face à la douleur et aux difficultés qui interpellaient sa famille, ses amis et des étrangers, la solidarité avec des actes concrets.

The family of Julia María Isabel Saravia Torricos invite her friends to attend the Nine day mass that will take place in commemoration of the deceased on Tuesday, March 13,2018, at 19:30 pm in the Church of St. John the Baptist, located at 941 Dundas Street West, Toronto, Canada. We thank you for your company in this moment of sorrow at the immense loss.

“Julia and I have volunteered, at the Furniture Bank, for over 10 years, the years that were a true gift for me. She never failed to amaze me, be it in her efforts to learn English so that any topic can be discussed, or in the joy of doing the job well and the energy with which she approached that work. Above all, behind that ever present smile there was so much compassion, empathy, and understanding for everyone that came in contact with her. She was greatly valued and respected for her work ethics and initiatives. There were some days when the work did not appeal that much to me, but knowing that Julia will be there, at the Furniture Bank, made all the difference to me. We worked so well together and had fun too. We even tried to dance, and she took to the rhythm as a duck to the water. When we met outside of the Furniture Bank, she was elegant and ready for any occasion. Those were the good days when we enjoyed the gift of good health. In the last few years, Julia demonstrated the strength in adversity, the acceptance, the gratitude and the beauty of her spirit. Her love for all her children was bigger than her heart. The teacher that we all need in the autumn of our life, that's what Julia was to me. She will be remembered and included in my prayers forever. My sincere condolence to her family, Donna

Sister Anne, the founder of The Furniture Bank, wrote the following words upon finding of Julia's passing: "Julia was a beautiful and gentle person even after all she suffered in her life. I shall never forget her, especially in my prayers. Sister Anne "

Nuestra mamá fue cristiana avant-la-lettre y en Bolivia colaboró con grupos de base de la teología de la liberación. En su edificio movilizó a la gente y trabajó en apoyo del Nouveau Parti Démocratique federal. Ella fue siempre una mujer comprometida, su lema: ayudar, desinteresadamente, sin esperar nada.

A ella se lo debemos todo lo que somos. Su pérdida es un abismo que se abre a nuestros pies. Y para consolar nuestra inmensa pena ella no deja de manifestarse, de apoyarnos, diciéndonos que está bien allá donde está, que está junto a Jesús, ya sin dolor. Ella está bien, nos está mirando y nos sigue queriendo como siempre lo ha hecho.
