It is with great sadness that the family wishes to announce the passing of Ken Curtis at the age of 80 years. Ever-loving husband of Jeannette Marie Curtis (Vautour) for 56 years. Dear father of Kenny Curtis (Evelyn), Paul Curtis (Henry) and Anne-Marie Moore (Darren). Proud Papa of C.J. (Curtis) Moore, Shane and Ian Hutchings. Ken was predeceased by his father Harry Curtis, mother Margaret Curtis (Lynagh), sister Bernice Manderson (Bill), nephew Sean McCann and nephew Bernie Curtis. Dear brother of Helen McCann (Cal), Bud Curtis (Joan), Lois Dewsbury (Dave) and Ruth Schrauwen (late John). Uncle Kenny will be missed by many nieces and nephews, and was blessed to have many caring friends throughout his life.

Our many precious memories of you will never fade. We learned how to love from you. We will forever treasure having had you for our husband, brother, father, uncle, grandfather and friend.

“ Ken and I had a lot of laughs. When I was looking for a place to set up a craft business he drove me all over Scarborough for three or four days looking for a place. When I found a place he would always visit me. I enjoyed his company and he enjoyed stories of my non-existent business skills. We had a lot of fun. Bob Murdoch ”

“ As I look at this tribute, I realize that this is real and that means he is really gone. This is still so fresh and painful. So many good memories, too many to list. The one thing that stands out is how he was always there for me. Whatever I needed he was there, even just to bounce off ideas, he always liked to hear what I was doing and gave me advice. I'm thankful for having him as my friend and buddy but most of all for being my Dad. I love and miss you Dad, today and always.

“ I smile when I look at this photo . He was my uncle but also my father as I was growing up and i can still hear him calling me by my full name...." Gregory " . I will miss his chuckle and take pride that I was lucky enough to have him as part of my life. I regret you never got to meet May . My thoughts have been with Jeanette , Kenny , Paul and Anne Marie these past few days . I love you all.
