

Mr. Kent A. McDonell

September 20, 2011

September 15, 1935 - September 20, 2011

With the same remarkable bravery and dignity that defined his life, Kent began his journey into the mystic on a beautiful, sunny day surrounded by his heartbroken family.

Kent was the devoted soulmate of his wife, Kellie (nee Culin); the beloved father of his three children, Greg (Cheryl), Lauren, and Jenny (Eliza); and the mischievous ally to his four adoring grandkids, Ryan, Brittany, Sean, and Logan. He will be dearly missed by Guy LaPyr. Kent proudly considered his children and grandchildren to be his greatest accomplishments.

Kent's razor sharp wit, foul mouth, and brilliant mind have left indelible impressions on all who knew him. Kent was always a crusader for the underdog and a valiant fighter for justice, truth, and fairness.

Kent is survived by his mom, Jessie, his big sister, Carole, and his little sister, Joy.

Kent's family members would like to extend their genuine gratitude to the nurses and doctors at Oshawa and Bowmanville Hospitals for the compassionate care they gave to Kent in his final days.

A celebration of Kent's passionate life will take place at the Orono Town Hall, 5315 Main Street, Orono, Ontario, L0B 1M0 on Monday, September 26, 2011 from 5pm to 9pm. In lieu of flowers, please plant a tree or practice a random act of kindness in Kent's honour.
