

Lance Durrant

January 22, 2025

Lance Durrant, of Long Branch passed away peacefully on January 22nd after a courageous three-year battle with colon cancer. Born and raised in Long Branch, Lance always held fond memories of his hometown, especially his love for the Blue Goose Tavern.

A lifelong fan of the Boston Bruins and New York Yankees, Lance had a passion for sports. He also enjoyed travelling, soaking up the sun, and sitting on his front deck chatting with neighbours, always seeking out new connections.

Lance was happily together with the love of his life, Karen, for 51 wonderful years. Together, they built a life filled with love and laughter, raising two adoring daughters, Jessica and Lindsay. He was also a proud grandfather to Ayden & father-in-law to Mike.

Lance will be deeply missed by his brothers, Roland Kellow and Rickie Durrant (Robin); his sister's-in-law, Gail Benn, and Cleone Bastien; his niece, Nicole (Jamie), and their two beautiful boys, Bryson and Grayden; as well as his lifelong best friend Rick and his wife Carla.

His love of sports, music & good times left an indelible mark on everyone who knew him & he'll be sorely missed by all.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ Dear Lindsay - my sincerest condolences to you and your entire family. While I only met your father a handful of times, each time I was greeted with a big smile and warmth. I know you so very close so just know he is always with you. ❤️ Melissa Miller

Melissa - January 26, 2025 at 05:02 PM

RR

“ Lance has been my best friend for 63 years, we grew up on the same street together, similar interests playing sports together, concerts, trips together, Lance was like a brother to me, people could only wish they had a friend like Lance, he left us to soon, he will be truly missed.
RIP my good friend
Rick Rowett

Rick Rowett - January 25, 2025 at 04:26 PM

PL

Lance has been my dear friend and neighbour for 15 years, we lived on the same street. I enjoyed seeing him on the new and old front porch.
he will be truly missed.
RIP my friend

Penny Lariviere - January 25, 2025 at 09:30 PM

LD

He was so lucky to have you as his best friend ❤️

Lindsay Durrant - January 25, 2025 at 09:50 PM

BW

Met Lance through Rick in 1984. Throughout the years everytime being with Lance was always enjoyable with fun, laughter, and light hearted. A fine fellow has left this world and is sadly missed. Rest Peacefully Lance

Bruce Ward - January 26, 2025 at 10:01 AM

LR

A truly beautiful soul ✨ gonna miss seeing him on the porch and our conversation especially when it was the world cup and euro how we would joke about the teams. He always had a smile and always such a happy hello .. R.I.P 🙏

Lucy randell - January 26, 2025 at 11:16 AM

RD

Playing table top hockey, enjoying a beer after ball hockey, Frisbee football or watching Ticats defeat the Agronauts in football together; these are the timeless memories I have of Lance, my brother. He can now rest and cheer 'Go Bruins'!

Rick Durrant - January 26, 2025 at 01:20 PM